**A copy of the prevailing wage determination used in the above-referenced matter is available for public inspection at the employer's place of business.*

By this notice, the employer attests that the following conditions will be met:

- 1) The nonimmigrant will receive at least the local prevailing wage or the employer's actual wage, whichever is higher, and will be paid for non-productive time as per Department of Labor regulations. The nonimmigrant is offered benefits on the same basis as made available to US workers.
- 2) The working conditions under which the nonimmigrant will be employed will not adversely affect the working conditions of US workers similarly employed.
- 3) There is no strike, lockout, or work stoppage in the occupational classification at the place of employment.
- 4) Notice is herewith provided to workers at the place of employment.

Complaints alleging misrepresentation of materials facts in the Labor Condition Application and/or failure to comply with the terms of the Labor Condition Application may be filed with any office of the Wage and Hour Division of the United States Department of Labor.
